TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AWARD CONTRACT

This sub-grant is awarded under the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) (P.L. 108-81, as amended) (CFDA No. 45.310) for the purposes of the Act as identified in the sub-grantee's official project application and any forthcoming revisions approved by the South Carolina State Library.

The sub-grant award number must be used on all correspondence directed to the South Carolina State Library concerning this sub-grant. Changes requiring prior approval include new or substantial changes to the budget, goals, objectives or activities as documented in sub-grantee's original project application.

When issuing statements, press releases, requests for proposals, bid solicitations, and other documents describing projects or programs funded in whole or in part with federal money, the sub-grantee shall clearly state the name of the funding source and credit the awarding agency, i.e., Library Services and Technology Act funds administered by the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) and the South Carolina State Library.
